Newsletter 77 - October 2011

Chairman's Report of the Year

Another eventful year and with plenty of shows bearing fruit this year in the form of new entrants, increased numbers and most importantly, new breeders being introduced to the breed.

The last event was of course the annual show and sale at Bretton, which had a good turnout of ewes this year. Quality stock was on offer with a complete dispersal from breed legend Harold Hodgson who has retired from sheep keeping after 70 years! All of Harold's stock went to good homes. I am pleased to hear that Philip Onions has arranged to visit Harold and to obtain from him words of wisdom based on his lifelong experience. I understand that Harold knows where the last of the Limestones was buried. Now there's a worthwhile project for the DNA profilers at RBST to pick up!

Edward Lees topped the chart with a pen of 10 x 2 and 3 shear ewes finding their way to Wales at £162 a head. Plenty of tups on offer as well with no less than 18 in the show line up. Neville Belfield (last year's winner) presented the Ken Wild trophy to a winning shearling from Simon Burford, which went on to sell for just under £1000 along with a WWSS registered shearling from Neville selling for a similar amount.

Good stock always sells well. We saw £115 plus at Melton (Julie Beardwell) and £147 at Skipton for one of Dave and Debbie Wardell's RBST registered shearling ewes.

Last year's highly successful on farm event at Pikenaze hosted by the Doweys is to be repeated in a week's time at Stott Hall Farm, hosted this time by Paul Thorp and Jill Falkingham. Jill has been talking of involving some discussion on Woodland wool and I'll be bringing along some of this year's fleeces for scrutiny and would invite others to do so as well.

I'm standing down as Chairman this year after the 3 year limit prescribed by our Constitution. But hope, if duly elected, to be VC (groans), in which role I would like to reconnect the Society with the various Institutional bodies who keep Woodlands but who tend not to be members of respective breed societies. I would also like to see a farm based workshop on tup selection for members who register with RBST. It's clear that the closed RBST registered flock has considerable asset value to the breed because it has been effectively separated over 30 years now from the "original" population.

See you all at Stott Hall then.

Rob Ford

Treasurer's Report and Accounts

Well, the end balance is looking healthier than last year's, thanks to the sales of mugs and calendars and also registering stock before the Bretton Mill sale. I think the design of T-shirts is next on the agenda, so if anyone has any ideas or designs they want to share, please forward them to me and we'll put them to the Committee meeting in February. The calendars were a success this year and hopefully will be again next year. Thanks to those who sent pictures to Paul – if it wasn't for those, we wouldn't have a calendar.

Karen Dowey

Philip also proposes Rob Ford as Vice Chairman, seconded by Ann Godschalk. Rachel Godschalk (Secretary & Membership) and Karen Dowey (Treasurer) are eligible to stand again. There are no other nominations.

Agenda item 7

This resolution is supported by a letter from Pam Crosby, Dave and Debbie Wardell, Helen and Chris Wray and Ric Halsall:

“There is a great deal of concern about the direction the Whitefaced Woodland Sheep Society is moving – the focus of the present leadership is on the promotion of unregistered flocks particularly in the close knit “Woodland” area of Penistone and the Derbyshire side of the Pennines.

The organisation of the group and the showing of sheep are dominated by the folk who own these flocks and live within this area, to the neglect of the greater number of Woodland breeders across the rest of the country.

Because of this concern expressed over the past 3 or 4 months and the total dominance by the same problem in the last two newsletters we would like [this] motion to be put to the 2011 AGM”

Agenda item 8

The Breed Description is taken from the RBST/ Combined Flock Book:

“The Whitefaced Woodland is one of the largest of British hill breeds. Mature ewes weigh 60kg (135lb) but may reach 72.5kg (160 lb) in good grazing. Animals of this breed are strong-boned and robust. When left undocked, the tail is long.

The wool is white and finer than that of many other hill breeds, being suitable for the manufacture of knitting or hosiery wool. The staple length is 15-20cm (6-8 inches), and the Bradford Count is 44-50, although the wool on the britch is coarser.

The face and legs are mainly white, although a little speckling is permissible. The skin of the muzzle may be wholly or partly pink. The head is strong and the face and muzzle are broad. Both sexes are horned strongly; the rams having heavily spiralled horns. The extreme Roman nose should be avoided.”

A Standard for showing was published in the Society’s March 2004 Newsletter:

“Whitefaced woodland sheep should be strong boned and have good conformation. Both sexes are horned, the male having heavily spiralling horns. Horns should emerge flat from the head and not appear goat like. Trimming of horns to prevent intrusion into the face is permissible. Sheep with horns removed may also be shown.

The tail has a distinctive muscular appearance, and it is traditional to leave the rams’ tails long, but to dock the ewes’ tails somewhere between the legal minimum length and the hock.

The sheep should have a broad white face with pink nose. Some speckling on the nose and face is permissible, though this should be discouraged.

Only the face, feet and legs may be washed, not the fleece. Light trimming of the fleece is permissible, so long as it does not detract from the natural appearance of the sheep. Backing down is not permitted. Oiling of horns is also acceptable.”

Suggestions received at that time were:

1. Change emphasis on speckling – suggest “Speckling on the nose and face should be discouraged”
2. Modify rules on washing – suggest replacing “Only the face, feet and legs may be washed, not the fleece”, with “Sheep may be cleaned before presenting to remove soil and stains.”

Sale reports

Eleven shearling ewes were forward at Melton Mowbray. Top price paid for the two blue carded animals was 110gns (£115.50), with an average price of £91. Sadly, the red carded 3-shear ram only made 90gns. The Goodchap Memorial cup and picture were not presented this year, as there was only one entry for the Show.

The best price for a shearling ewe at Skipton was 140gns (£147), with all five selling at 100gns or above (average £120). Five ewe lambs made between 65 and 75gns (£68 - £79) and the only ram lamb, £84. Two shearling rams sold for £55 and £58 and a 3-shear for £84.

Some 200 Woodlands were forward at Bretton Mill, including a dispersal sale of 55 ewes and lambs from Harold Hodgson. Harold Hodgson won the aged tup class, and then a line up of 18 shearling tups presented a real challenge for judge Neville Belfield. Even ‘old hands’ reckoned they hadn’t seen such a gathering!

Results were:

- 1st Simon Burford
- 2nd Paul Thorp
- 3rd Edward Lees.

Simon Burford thus won the coveted Ken Wild trophy, though Beth Wild could not present it personally, as she had broken her ankle. We send her our best wishes for a speedy recovery.

The Champion tup sold for £950, the highest price of the day, just beating a Neville Belfield shearling at £920. Draft ewes reached £162 per head, for a pen of ten, the next highest being £132. Shearling ewes reached £112, and James Gill’s outstanding tup lamb made £450.

Analysis of prices:

5 aged tups: highest: £380, average: £141
15 shearling tups: highest: £950, average: £237
42 tup lambs: highest: £450, average: £55.70
8 wether lambs: average: £37.90
67 draft ewes: highest: £162, average: £96.10
22 shearling ewes: highest: £112, av.: £103.70
32 ewe lambs: highest: £79, average: £56.90
Seven tups did not reach their reserve price.

Hayfield Show

At the last show of the season, James Gill took the Championship with his shearling tup, and went on to win the Interbreed. Simon Burford’s gimmer lamb was Reserve. The other Woodland classes were won by: Chereen Kaye (shearling ewe), Simon Burford (tup lamb,) Richard Cottrill (aged ram), and James Gill (aged ewe).

To find Stott Hall Farm

Come off the M62 at Junction 22 and head towards Halifax on the A672 for about three miles, passing a large reservoir on your right. When you get to the end of the reservoir, you will see a dam wall with a little car park and just after here there is a right turning (signposted with a brown picnic sign) which you take. The road drops down under the dam wall and curves around to the left, away from the dam wall and you'll see some large boulders on your right, turn in here and follow the drive all the way up, under the eastbound carriageway, then turn right into the farm yard.
